

Simulation × AI for Sustainability

Fracta Leap develops and provides services for reducing necessary energy and chemical consumption by utilizing AI/IoT technologies to approach the social issue of water shortage.

We are currently focusing on developing optimization algorithm for operation and maintenance of water treatment plants. Also, we are developing new low cost digital sensors to contribute to the algorithm.

